Presents

The Cultural Competency Workshop:
#CulturallyCompetentAndInclusiveHealthcare

The future of health care will be shaped by the cultural competence of our health professionals and leaders across the globe. How prepared are you to provide #culturallycompetentandinclusivehealthcare?

Date: Friday, November 6, 2015 Time: 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Location: Colorado State University, Lory Student Center Room 324

Workshop Description:

During this 7 hour workshop, participants will explore the importance of aspiring to be culturally competent health professionals and will discover ways to enhance engagement with our growing diverse populations.

By the end of the workshop, participants will be able to:

- Discuss the business imperative for providing culturally competent and inclusive health care.
- Describe how conscious and unconscious bias impacts communication and the decision-making process.
- Identify culturally competent behaviors, techniques and best practices.

Pre-work: Complete one of the implicit bias test at <https://implicit.harvard.edu/implicit/>

Master Instructor: Mauritha Hughes, MEd., RN, Diversity Learning and Development Specialist, Kaiser Permanente
