

Stool Based Screening Boot Camp Webinar Series!

REGISTER HERE!

Session 1: Evidence Base for Stool Based Screening At the conclusion of this webinar, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identify appropriate patients for stool based on screening guidelines - Discuss about best tests available - Explain Community Guide recommendations 	Friday, February 21st 11:00am – 12:00pm (MT) Featured Speakers: Durado Brooks, MD American Cancer Society, National Home Office
Session 2: Patient Perspectives At the conclusion of this webinar, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Understand the historical landscape around patient preference for colorectal cancer screening - Explain the patient’s perceived and actual barriers and challenges around screening - Discuss the potential benefits of considering patient preferences and integrating shared decision making 	Friday, February 28th 11:00am – 12:00pm (MT) Featured Speaker: Sharyn Worrall & Reese Garcia Fight Colorectal Cancer
Session 3: Implementing FIT/FOBT Programs in your Clinics At the end of this webinar, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Explain importance of annual testing and compliance - Understand need for tracking and monitoring - Discuss different approaches to FIT/FOBT campaigns 	Friday, March 6th 11:00am – 12:00pm (MT) Featured Speaker: Clinica Tepeyac
Session 4: Population Management vs. Patient Navigation At the conclusion of this webinar, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Explain Systems and EMR Tracking - Discuss importance of reminder systems - Identify patients in need of devoted patient navigation services - Define best practices and approaches for high turnover/transient populations 	Friday, March 13th 11:00am – 12:00pm (MT) Featured Speaker: Andrea (Andi) Dwyer University of Colorado Cancer Center, Colorado Cancer Screening Program
Session 5: Managing a Positive Stool Based Test At the conclusion of this webinar, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identify practical ways to combat the issue - Explain benefit of creating a registry of patients with positive stool test and need for robust follow-up plans - Explain benefit of directly notifying endoscopists of patients with positive stool-based test - Define appropriate interval between positive stool test and diagnostic colonoscopy 	Thursday, March 19th 11:00am – 12:00pm (MT) Featured Speaker: Amanda Petrik Center for Health Research, Kaiser Permanente Northwest